CASE: STATE VS Billy Lee Oatney C962556CR

WITNESS: Sharon Darling
10760 SW Denny Rd.
Beaverton, OR
526-3680

ATTORNEY: John P. Manning

DATE: 24 February 1998

TIME: 13:50-14:10

On the above-mentioned date and during the above-mentioned time, I contacted Sharon Darling, Human Resources manager at Mercer Industries. After clearly identifying myself as an investigator working with the attorney on behalf of Billy Lee Oatney, Jr., Ms Darling agreed to speak with me.

Ms Darling stated that she interviewed Mr. Oatney for a job with Mercer Industries. She further stated that she was very impressed with him, describing him as a reserved, clean-cut, and quiet guy. She stated that he passed his drug tests, and that she hired him for a position within Mercer.

Ms Darling stated that Billy had actually worked a couple of weeks for the company, before failing to show up. She stated that she received a call from him, wherein he explained that he had some personal problems, and would not be able to come in. She stated that she later found out that the personal problems Billy was speaking of involved this matter.

Ms Darling is willing to come in to testify. She stated that she does suffer from Multiple Sclerosis, and, in fact, this investigator observed that she walked with a noticeable limp. She was served with a subpoena to appear. This concluded my interview with Ms Darling.
